Quarter-final match: Iran vs. Oman

Team Sanctions: The abandonment of a match without valid justification considering that it damages the reputation of the Oman team, both nationally and internationally, and affects its image in the sporting community.

Team Sanctions: The Oman team are subject to sanctions such as ranking penalty points, financial fines and suspension of participation in future competitions.

team members, including players and technical staff, are considering sanctions, with match suspensions and bans from participating in competitions.

Ban on participating in the futsal stadium until the end of the matches for safety reasons.

Exclusion from the competition: The Oman team is excluded from the competition and disqualified from participating in the 5th to 8th place matches, which could also prevent them from competing for titles and prizes.

Financial fines: In addition to sporting sanctions, the Oman team faces financial fines for violating competition rules.

In summary, abandoning a futsal match without valid justification would have serious consequences for the Oman team, both sportingly and financially, and would also affect its reputation in the sporting world.

With the current score 6-1 in Iran's favor, Oman's abandonment of the match would result in Iran's victory by forfeit. This means that the final score would be recorded as a 6–1 victory for Iran and Oman would be considered to have lost the match. Disciplinary consequences for Oman would still apply in accordance with competition rules, as previously mentioned.
